Date Supervision Expires: 7/28/2007

PETITIONING THE COURT

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

19. You shall reside in a community corrections center for a period of up to 120 days. This placement may include a pre-release component, day reporting, and home confinement (with or without electronic monitoring, but not to include GPS) at the directions of the CCM and USPO. You shall abide by the rules and requirements of that facility. You shall remain at the facility until discharged by the Court.

CAUSE

On December 6, 2005, the undersigned officer contacted Mr. Wooley at his residence. During an inspection of Mr. Wooley's residence, codefendant Henderson Wallen was located hiding in a bedroom. Mr. Wallen is also supervised by the undersigned officer, and Your Honor issued a warrant for his arrest on November 2, 2005. Mr. Wooley has failed to maintain stable employment since September 2005. As the Court may recall, Mr. Wooley last appeared before the Court on July 1, 2005, at which time he was permitted to continue on supervision pending his compliance, specifically with mental health counseling. He is no longer attending mental health counseling. In the discharge summary from mental health counselor Connie Silk, it is noted that Mr. Wooley did not take the counseling very seriously, and only attended because he had to.

Given the defendant's lack of compliance and failure to maintain stable employment, CCC placement appears appropriate. It is the undersigned officer's opinion that this is an appropriate sanction that will allow close monitoring by the probation office and assist Mr. Wooley with employment opportunities. Mr. Wooley has agreed with this modification and has signed the attached waiver of hearing to modify his conditions. Additionally, should your Honor concur with this modification, it is respectfully recommended that the defendant not be placed at the CCC until after December 25, 2005.

Respectfully submitted,

by

Richard B. Law

U.S. Probation Officer
